

Mission Statement

DanceWorks Chicago is committed to building a foundation for early career artists by providing a laboratory from which dancers and choreographers propel themselves and the art form to a new level of artistry through training, collaboration, mentorship, and performance.

Strategic Vision

DanceWorks Chicago will be a respected, recognized, and sought after diverse organization that is sustainably managed and whose purpose, passion, and commitment to the advancement of early career artists is well understood.

